Preface

A. Definitions

1. Certain words in this Manual are capitalized to show significant relationship to the Pennsylvania State USBC Association. These words and their expanded meaning are as follows.

Capitalized Word(s)	Full Meaning
USBC	United States Bowling Congress
Association	Pennsylvania State USBC Association
Board	The Board of Directors of the Pennsylvania State USBC
Manual	This document in its entirety
Delegates	Local Association Representatives

B. Introduction

1. This Manual is prepared for the use of those Association Officers, Board Members and committee persons who have a need for it in the discharge of their duties and responsibilities in carrying out the goals and objectives of the Pennsylvania State USBC Association. It includes all those activities and functions, which are discharged by the Association. It is available on the website (bowlpa.com).
2. This Manual remains the property of the Association. Individuals in possession of this Manual are expected to keep it up to date by inserting new and revised pages and removing obsolete and changed ones.

C. Manual Style

1. This Manual is written to organize material which existed or is being compiled for the first time for the guidance of the Association's operation.
2. This manual is under the authority of the Board of Directors who have sole discretion to change the contents of this Policy Manual and should strongly take into consideration the suggestions of the Delegates and our Members. The By-Laws of the Association can only be changed by the Delegates at a meeting of the delegates.
3. The Manual is released on a seasonal basis, for example 2020-2021 Policy Manual. Any changes within that season will be noted in red. The cover page shall show the date of the last revision, and all changes shall be logged in Appendix B – Policy Manual Change Log.

ASSOCIATION CORE POLICIES

4. The Committee members will study all candidates' applications, grade from 1 to 5 each resume, sign and return the ballot to the Chairperson.
5. The Chairperson will tally the committee members' votes and the committee will use this scoring and discussion of candidates to make a determination on who shall be slated for any open positions.
6. The Chairperson shall notify all of those that have been slated to submit a personal bio of no more than 250 words to be used in the creation of the slate.
7. The prepared slate of candidates, listing nominees and their bios shall be forwarded to the Association Manager for duplication and distribution. This report shall be in the hands of the Association Manager by June 1.

D. Reporting

1. The committee chair shall take the position of the presiding officer prior to the actual voting and perform the following:
2. Present the slate to the delegates.
3. Ask for nominations from the floor. Such nominations must meet the eligibility requirements as set forth in the Bylaws.
4. Give three calls for such nominations before accepting a motion to close the nomination.
5. Assure that only a verbatim reading of the floor nominee's bio is made without additional comment.
6. Conduct the election of the directors by ballot vote or entertain a motion to empower the Association Manager to cast a single ballot for all unopposed candidates.
7. Yield the chair to the presiding officer.

E. Election of Officers

1. The Officers of this Association shall be elected annually at a scheduled meeting of the Board during the Annual Meeting Weekend, but no later than July 31.

2. Only sitting Board Members are eligible. Any Board Member who is not re-elected to the Board who has submitted their name for consideration shall be determined null and void.
3. Nomination Process
 - a) Nominations are to be submitted to the Association Manager thirty (30) days in advance of the Board Meeting where the elections are to be held.
 - b) Nominations from the floor will only be taken if no advanced nominee for the position has been received.
4. Application Process
 - a) Nomination form can be found in the Appendix.
5. Election Process
 - a) The Chair of the Nominating Committee will preside over the election unless he/she has been nominated for a position. In that case, the nominating committee chair will appoint another member of the committee to preside.
 - b) When more than one candidate for position is nominated, they shall be excused from the meeting and brought into the meeting room one at a time to address the Board as to why they want to serve and answer any questions Board members may have.
 - c) Officers will be elected by ballot vote (electronic votes are permitted at the time of the elections.) A single nominee may be elected by voice vote. The President position is elected first, then the Vice President.
 - d) To be elected, the candidate for each officer's position must receive a majority of the votes cast by those Board members present and eligible to vote (half of the votes plus one.) Should a majority not be reached by any candidate, the candidate with the lowest number of votes will be dropped and balloting continues until a majority is obtained. Note: All candidates receiving the same lowest vote count will be dropped.

Legislative Committee

- A. Purpose
 - 1. It shall be the responsibility of this committee to study and evaluate all proposals to introduce, amend or delete sections of this Manual and to present those proposals to the Board that are to be considered for acceptance or rejection.

2. The Youth Tournament process allows for Centers to place the Bids (and not Associations), in the following that describes the actual voting, the word Association may also mean Center. The Pepsi Youth Bowling Championships Tournament bids are solicited only from BPAA/Pepsi Centers that qualify, so in this case the following would pertain to Center(s) not Association(s)
3. The selection of the tournament host is by the Delegates. Board Members shall not vote, and the Board shall record no preference for the host. The State Association Board shall select the center(s) to which each tournament will be held. The Board, however, shall have the duty to assure all bids are presented in a fair manner. The sequence of actions at the annual meeting shall be as follows:
4. The Association Manager shall indicate the names of all associations bidding for the tournament.
5. Each bidding association shall be allocated a period of time to make a presentation to the Delegates. A maximum of ten (10) minutes shall be allotted to each bidder. Two minutes prior to the end of the allotted time, a designated Association Board Member shall signal this fact. The following rules must be followed:
6. The entire presentation shall focus only on the local area and its attributes. There shall be no comparison between the bidding association and its opponent(s). The presentation shall at all times reflect a positive attitude.
7. The bidding association shall not mention the lineage fee.
8. A bidding association may mention any additional incentives that it will offer should the tournament be awarded, although such incentives may not be indicated as sponsorship of the tournament.
9. A moderator shall be appointed by the President to assure the rules are followed.
10. Should an infraction occur, the moderator may terminate the presentation or disqualify the bidding association from any further consideration.
11. The President shall call for a vote from the voting Delegates. When only one bid has been received a voice vote will be taken. When two or more bids are submitted a ballot vote shall be taken, with a majority of votes cast needed to determine the winner.
12. If two associations are bidding and a tie vote occurs, voting shall continue until the tie is broken.
13. If three or more associations are bidding, voting shall continue until one receives a majority of the votes cast. If, after any given ballot, a majority has not been attained, the association receiving the smallest number of votes shall be removed from the ballot and voting shall continue until a majority has been achieved.
