

HALL OF FAME

DAVID E BARSHINGER

YEAR INDUCTED: 2006

CATEGORY: MERITORIOUS SERVICE

YORK, PENNSYLVANIA

David E. Barshinger entered the Pennsylvania State USBC Hall of Fame for his meritorious service to the game of bowling.

Dave has been in Organized Bowling for 36 years. Dave has bowled in 31 PSBA Tournaments and 14 ABC Tournaments. He has a high game of 299, a high series of 767, and a high average of 203. He has one local association Senior team title and one PSBA Senior team title to his credit.

Dave has served on almost every committee of the PSBA. He became a Central Area Director in 1992 and served as President of the PSBA in 2002-2003. Dave set up the first PSBA web pages on the Internet and serves as the current PSBA Webmaster. He was the local onsite Chairman of the 2005 PSBA senior tournament.

He was very active in his local association (The York County BA) having been Vice President, Director, Advisory Board Life Member and Delegate to the National Convention. Dave is a Certified Lane Inspector, a Certified YABA Coach Instructor, and was a member of the first ABC Public Relations Class held in Greendale, Wisconsin. He served on the ABC Ballot Committee at the ABC Convention held in Knoxville, Tennessee. He has served as a League President, Secretary and Treasurer for over twenty years.

Dave also served on the York-Adams YABA Board of Directors, the PA State YABA Board of Directors, and the PA State Bowling Council, serving two years as Vice President.