FRANK CLAUSE

YEAR INDUCTED: 1976

CATEGORY: BOWLING ABILITY

OLD FORGE, PENNSYLVANIA

Frank Clause entered the Pennsylvania State USBC Hall of Fame for his bowling ability. Frank was a former high school English and history teacher that caught the attention of AMF in 1957 and eventually traveled the world for the company instructing men, women and children in the tenpin sport. He authored two books on bowling and had a syndicated bowling column, which was carried by hundreds of newspapers. He earned seven tournament titles in the East and won $67,000 on two televised bowling shows.

Frank was inducted into the ABC Hall of Fame in 1980.
