

HALL OF FAME

JOSEPH NAGY SR

YEAR INDUCTED: 1996

CATEGORY: BOWLING ABILITY

COATESVILLE, PENNSYLVANIA

Joseph Nagy entered into the Pennsylvania State Bowling Hall of Fame for his ability in the game of bowling. Joe has bowled in over 35 P.S.B.A. tournaments and over 40 A.B.C. tournaments. Most of his achievements came in the 1950's and 1960's. However, in the 1996 P.S.B.A. Championship tournament in Altoona, he teamed with his son, Joe Jr., and rolled a 1368 scratch total. In 1993, at the age of 75, he compiled a 202 average. He holds championships in various Tournaments all over Eastern and Central Pennsylvania. Far too many to list here. He was the Doubles Champion in the 1987 P.S.B.A. Seniors Tournament. He has rolled at least three 300 games and his list of 700 series are too many to count. He was inducted into the Philadelphia Hall of Fame in 1981 and has been an outstanding bowler over the past 40 years.
