

STAR OF TOMORROW AWARD RECIPIENT

BROOK SCHACH

YEAR AWARDED: 2017

TREMONT, PENNSYLVANIA

Brooke is a junior at Pine Grove Area High School in Pine Grove, PA. She plans on attending Lebanon Valley College to become a Physical Therapist. Her GPA is 101.92 out of 100.00.

Her Leadership skills involves being the class Vice President since 2015 and a Student Council Member since 2015.

Her other activities that she participated in during the 2016/2017 school year includes being on the Prom Committee, Quiz Bowl, SADD (Students Against Drunk Driving), Future Business Leaders of America), and FFA (Future Farmers of America).

She participated in The Hunting Club from 2015 to present and the Varsity club. She is also a member of the National Honor Society.

Besides bowling on the PJBT (Pennsylvania Junior Bowlers Tour) this year, Brooke also participates in other sport activities such as track & field, varsity volleyball, and varsity softball since she started high school.

What time she has left in a day, she does volunteer work with Bible School, does tutoring, works with the youth softball & volleyball programs, field clean-up and Bowl for Kids' Sake program.

She has participated in over 30 local tournaments and over 15 District and State tournaments.

Her highest single game is a 211 and her highest 3 game series is a 510.0