

STAR OF TOMORROW AWARD RECIPIENT

DELANEY REITNAUER

YEAR AWARDED: 2020

MILLERSVILLE, PENNSYLVANIA

Delaney Reitnauer is the daughter of Mark and Christina Reitnauer of Millersville, PA.

In the fall Delaney will be a senior at Penn Manor High School. She carries a GPA of 4.2778 out of 4.0 and has been ranked 1st in her class the past 3 years. Upon graduation from high school she will be attending college majoring in Psychology and Education.

Her leadership roles have included being a class officer for her 3 years so far at Penn Manor. For 2 summers she has been a Vacation Bible School Crew Leader and a UE Camp Team Leader. For the past 3 years she has been a Sunday School Student Leader. And this past school year Delaney was the Marching Band leader and the team captain of the high school girls bowling team.

Delaney is also very active in other activities at her school. Since her freshman year those activities include the National Honor Society, Jazz Band, Orchestra, Marching Band, Jazz Group, Chorus, Concert Band, Theatre Club, school musicals and the Multicultural Club.

Delaney Also volunteers much of her time with community service to the Children's Ministry, Bible School, Youth Group, UE Camp, Parents Night Out, Strike-A-Thon Mini-Thon Fundraiser, Sr. Citizens dinners and a pancake breakfast.

In Delaney's bowling career she has rolled a high game of 264 and a 634 series. Delaney also participated in a number of PA State USBC District and State Tournaments. She helped her team place 1st in the 2019-2020 Lancaster USBC Youth Team Tournament.

And above all this Delaney manages to find time to have a part time job.