

STAR OF TOMORROW AWARD RECIPIENT

HEATHER PAUL

YEAR AWARDED: 2012

BUTLER, PENNSYLVANIA

It is our pleasure, as the USBC State Youth Board, to recognize this individual for the 2nd Annual Female PA Youth Star of Tomorrow Award. She is an exceptional student, carrying over a 4.0 throughout her high school career. She recently graduated from Butler High School and will be attending Penn State in the Fall.

Throughout high school she has taken Honor/AP Classes in English, History, Science and Math. Heather has been involved in the following in high school: Band member all four years, JROTC member in all four years, serving as Supply Assistant in 9th, Logistics Officer in 10th, Executive Officer in 11th, And Battalion Director in 12th.

Joined the Future Business Leaders of America organization in her Senior year and competed in the competition that test business knowledge and skills where she qualified for regional competition and finished 2nd and also qualified for the State Competition. Throughout her high school career, she has been involved in numerous extracurricular activities. Of course, she has been involved in bowling, not just as a member but a volunteer. Heather has contributed to the sport of bowling as well at the Local Level where she is a level 1 Coach since age 16. A Jr Director on the local youth board and has helped in the conduction of local tournaments. She has contributed many hours to lane monitor at many local and state events, as well as work the souvenir stand for her local association and the state youth association.

As you can see this individual has committed her time to school, sports and extra-curricular activities which has helped her grow and become the outstanding young person that she is today.