

STAR OF TOMORROW AWARD RECIPIENT

KELSEY ZOOK

YEAR AWARDED: 2011

CITY, PENNSYLVANIA

It is our pleasure, as the USBC State Youth Board, to recognize this individual for the 1st Annual PA Youth Star of Tomorrow Award. She is an exceptional student, carrying over a 4.0 throughout her high school career. She has attained this success by constantly setting goals to earn higher grades in her classes and she believes that school has shown her that a good work ethic is vital to being successful in life.

Throughout her high school career, she has been involved in numerous extracurricular activities and sports activities that include: Girl Scouts, People to People, Reading-Pottstown USBC Assoc. Youth volunteer, National Society of High School Scholars, U.S. Achievement Academy, Penn State Berks- Veterinary Camp, Band, Chorus, Tri-M Music Honor Society, Class President, Field Hockey, Bowling, Track and Field

Some of her most outstanding accomplishments include: Girl Scout Bronze and Silver Award, Member of the International Ambassador Alumni Society, Field Hockey All- County Team 2010/All State e^d Team 2010 and team captain 2010, Bowling team captain 2009-2011, All-County Team 2011, County high individual. Girl's game of 288, and Team District and Regional Qualifier in 2010 and 2011, and State Qualifier 2011 11th place overall medal and the Bowl O Rama Jr. All Star Team 2010, Senior County band 2010 and 2011, Senior county Chorus 2009-2011, 1st place District ranking/Soprano 2010 and Reading Choral Society outstanding student in 2011, 1st place PA State Junior Prepared Speaking Competition, National Honor Student Award

As you can see this individual has committed her time to school, sports and extra-curricular activities which has helped her grow and become the outstanding young person that she is today.

So please join me in giving a big round of applause, as we present the r^t Annual PA Star of Tomorrow Award to Kelsey Zook!!!